

Corvus Corax

Ars Mystica

'The art of mystic'

Good news for Corvus Corax fans in July 2016: The new record named 'Ars Mystica' presents a selection of songs of the last 27 years themed around myths, sagas and legends. In this way it is also appropriate as soundtrack for fantasy, online-gaming and roleplay-actions. Take a journey with Corvus Corax through different cultures, to furthest places, beyond wildest dreams ...

'Ars Mystica' combines the different fortes of the extraordinary musicians from Berlin. On the one hand dulcet ballades with impressive chant and charming melodies like 'Lá í mbeltane', 'Ballade de Mercy' and 'Qui nous demaine'.

These songs create a unforgettable world of dreams. On the other hand heroic tunes and hymns 'Mille Anni Passi Sunt', 'Sverker', 'Die Klage' and 'Is Nomine Vacans' (known from the soundtrack of the computer game ,Gothic 3') tell tales of awesome heroes with epic percussions and solemn instrumentals: Each song of 'Ars Mystica' takes you away into the mind of mankind and the world soul.

One big highlight and special present is the medieval version of the ,Game of Thrones' main theme. Corvus Corax were invited to the filming of the pilot episode for performing, so they couldn't imagine this ,fantasy-record' without a tribute to ,Game of Thrones'.

For this compilation Corvus Corax achieved support from friends and companions, who are as taken in by mystic and fantasy as the minstrels: Anke aus Siebenbürgen with vocals, Julia Lindner with her baroque viola, Werner alias Tec as 'magician of sounds' und Oliver s. Tyr of 'Faun' to play the harp.

