

CORVUS CORAX ERA METALLUM - Ragnarök ft. Sabina Classen
06.05.2022 via Behßmokum Records/Tonpool

Ragnarök, the end of the world in Norse mythology is probably the most heavy metal suitable narration in human history.

CORVUS CORAX and KREATOR guitarist SAMI YLI-SIRNIÖ have impressively recreated this doomsday scenario for their joint "New Medieval Metal" project ERA METALLUM. Thrashing guitar riffs and blasting double bass thunderstorms unite with hypnotizing bagpipe melodies.

The perfect voice of the apocalypse is provided by SABINA CLASSEN, front woman of the German thrash metal legend HOLY MOSES since 1981 and one of the first women ever to lead an extreme metal band.

Her brutal growls and bloodcurdling screams let the listener witness the "Ragnarök" literally live.

CORVUS CORAX ERA METALLUM - Ragnarök ft. Sabina Classen will be released on 06.05.2022 as a digital single on all streaming and download portals.

The accompanying lyric video will premiere on the same day on the Youtube channel of CORVUS CORAX. The single is the prelude to a whole series of exciting collaborations with groundbreaking giants of the metal genre.

The album "Corvus Corax Era Metallum" will be released on 6/24/2022 as Ltd. edition double CD and digital album. The vinyl version will be available in stores from 09/21/2022.
